

HORSEMANSHIP AND ATHLETISM COMBINE IN A THRILLING SPECTACLE: PROFESSIONAL TRICK RIDER NIKI CAMMAERT TO PERFORM AT CLOVERDALE RODEO DAILY

For Immediate Release:

Surrey, British Columbia – From rodeos representing all corners of the globe to the sets of more than 11 feature films to presidential performances, world-renowned professional trick rider stuntwoman Niki Cammaert comes to the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair to deliver awe-inspiring demonstrations highlighting the profound love and trust between horse and rider.

The Cloverdale Rodeo and Exhibition Association is proud to announce that Rockyford, Alberta-native Cammaert will perform as the specialty act for all five Cloverdale Rodeo events this May Long Weekend, May 21-24, 2010. Challenging gravity, balance and sheer speed, Cammaert's performances have continued to position her as the premier stunt rider of her kind in North America.

At just 28, Cammaert is living her dream, touring extensively and performing for top rodeos with her three horses. She has had the honor and privilege of performing for Canada's Prime Minister, the President of Mexico and the President of the United States of America. 2009 marked her fifth appearance at the National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, Nevada. Her stint in Cloverdale will see her dazzle spectators with a unique show during each performance.

Five Rodeo Performances with Finals:

Friday, May 21:	7:30 p.m.
Saturday, May 22:	2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Sunday, May 23:	2 p.m.
Monday, May 24:	2 p.m. (Finals)

The 2010 Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair will take place May 21-24, 2010, at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds, for more information visit www.cloverdalerodeo.com.

The Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair is generously supported by the Marquee Tourism Events Program, one of several tourism-related programs announced in Canada's Economic Action Plan, designed to help organizers expand the reach of their events and promote Canada as a must-see tourist destination to visitors from around the globe.
