

WORLD FAMOUS 'LONGHORN SALOON' GEARS UP FOR 2009 MAY LONG WEEKEND EVENT

For Immediate Release

Surrey, British Columbia - The Cloverdale Rodeo is well known for its bull riding, world-class cowboys and enthusiastic rodeo fans, but it's also famous for its party scene. But to call it 'nightlife' is downright incorrect. At the Rodeo, the party starts before noon and doesn't stop until well after sundown.

Known throughout the rodeo world, the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair's Longhorn Saloon, located in the Agriplex building, will feature live country music from May 15th to 18th from Whiskey Jane and Ken McCoy.

The 2009 Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair will also feature an exciting all-ages Kick-Off Party at the Longhorn, featuring Canadian Country music sensation Terri Clark with special guests Ken McCoy and Whiskey Jane, on Thursday, May 14th. Call TicketMaster at 604-280-4444 to pre-purchase tickets for only $50/$60 (VIP), plus service charge.

Outdoors, look for the Wild Cactus Saloon featuring the Bud Big Rig, a fun licensed beer garden.

Patrons must be 19 years of age or older for entrance to all licensed beer gardens*
