

MORE TWISTS & TURNS THAN A BUCKIN' BRONCO

BC'S LARGEST TRAVELING MIDWAY AT THE CLOVERDALE RODEO AND COUNTRY FAIR

For Immediate Release

Surrey, British Columbia - Attention thrill seekers of all ages: British Columbia's largest traveling midway featuring more than 30 stomach turning, head spinning rides will once again be the centre point of the Country Fair at the 2009 Cloverdale Rodeo & Exhibition this Victoria Day long weekend, May 15th – 18th at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds.

It's one of the most-popular attractions at the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair and features something for thrill seekers of all ages. This year the midway features two brand-new rides: the Wacky Worm and the Mardi Gras. The Wacky Worm is a family-oriented two-level roller coaster that is thrilling for young and old, while the Mardi Gras is a colourful, two-storey mirror maze sure to keep parents and kids entertained at every turn.

Don't let the cowboys be the only ones leaving the fair grounds all shook up, take a spin at the Midway, it's a Victoria Day long weekend tradition.
